

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW
March 31, 2019

SCOTT PAREL (-7, playoff continues Monday)

Q. Scott, we asked Kevin, what's the mindset tonight after five playoff holes and you have to come out here early tomorrow morning?

SCOTT PAREL: The mindset is go get something to eat and get some rest. I'm not too worried about tomorrow. We're both in a good spot, you know. We know what we've got to do, so we'll just see. I'm sure it's going to be chilly and 18 will probably play a little different, so we'll see.

Q. Have you ever been a part of something like this before, going through all these playoff holes, have to go to sleep and just go through a whole night --

SCOTT PAREL: I don't think so, no. I don't think so.

Q. You mentioned 18. It seemed like the green was giving a lot of people fits today. What was so difficult about that hole?

SCOTT PAREL: Well, there's a very fine line where you can land the ball to get it to not go past or get it to be short. You've got to land it perfectly. My last hole in regulation was actually a blessing, I think, to be in the rough a little bit because I landed it in that upslope, and because of the spin, it had enough to just trickle over the hill and get down there where I had a good putt. Anything out of the fairway lands there, it doesn't go over the hump. If you carry the hill, it's going to go to the back of the green. The greens are so firm and fast, it's just, you know, you're going to have to probably make a 20-foot putt, which unfortunately we didn't do.

Q. Scott, I asked Kevin this, but you get five holes deep, how much does your mindset change every hole? Are you more frustrated or are you thinking different or trying to stay pretty even keel?

SCOTT PAREL: Well, I thought it was over, I don't even remember which hole it was when I made bogey. I thought for sure he was going to make that par putt. So my mindset was, you know, I'm just lucky to be still playing, so that's how I'll look at it tomorrow.
